

Home work 4

Due date 12/14

Using the sphere generation program as a starting point, construct an interactive program that will allow you to position one or more light sources. And to alter material properties. Use your program to try to generate images of surface that match familiar materials such as metals plastic and carbon. Also the sphere can grow bigger or smaller. Try to use the Phong shading and the Gouraud shading